

WOODRUFF HEALTH EDUCATORS ACADEMY PRESENTS

EDUCATORS SALON

Need a break from the virtual classroom?

COME DO VIRTUAL IMPROV WITH EDUCATORS ACROSS WHSC!

Led by Gina Shannon, MAT

Associate Director, Clinical Skills Center

Emory University School of Medicine

&

Sarah Shaver, M4, Emory University School of Medicine

Monday, April 13, 2020

4:30– 5:30 pm

Online <https://zoom.us/j/8502179161>

To maintain Zoom security, please RSVP at <https://forms.gle/8aMtFoorzXUwqsc8> if you're considering attending. You will be then on the list of permitted attendees.

Teaching, even in the best of times, requires skill in interpersonal communication, collaboration and adaptability. Improvisational theater requires the same expertise.

Join us as a community of health professions educators to mingle (virtually) and play with those skills together.

Refreshments would have been provided (bring your own snacks and beverages!)
